We are offering trainings in many topics relevant to people with developmental disabilities and their families.

There are two ways to access our trainings:

1. You come to us and we will present in our office. Presentations are scheduled monthly and sent out via email to our mailing list. Due to limited space, plan to RSVP.

2. We will come to you. If you have a group of parents, self-advocates, or other interested stakeholders, please contact us to make arrangements.
