To Whom It May Concern,

We at Maxim Behavioral Health would like to introduce ourselves and share with you our home-based Applied Behavior Analysis/ positive behavior support services. The need for Applied Behavior Analysis is huge, and we are happy to be able to provide these services to the community. We are officially accepting new clients, and accept a variety of insurance and funding options. We have a staff of well-trained Board Certified Behavior Analysts and Behavior Technicians. Our services offer customized levels of support and training.

If you'd like to learn more about our available services, please contact us.

Thank you,

Justin Lovins,

Behavioral Recruitment Manager | Maxim Behavioral Health
